May They Be One Bible Campaign
"Father... May they be one... just as you and I are one."
 John 17:21-22

May They Be One, our biggest Bible advocacy, began as a dream for 5 million Bibles for poor families in the Philippines. The dream is becoming a reality. Since the project was launched in September 2008, May They Be One (MTBO) Bible Campaign has also become a symbol of unity and cooperation among the Episcopal Commission for the Biblical Apostolate of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines (ECBA-CBCP), the Philippine Bible Society (PBS), other Christian churches and lay organizations involved in Bible ministry and apostolate.

There has been a growing demand for MTBO Bibles from Catholic parishes throughout the Philippines. Statistics to note:

- 85 of the 86 Dioceses have embraced the project and ordered MTBO Bibles and provided Bible formation/study programmes for those who received Bibles.
- 1,307 Parishes have become involved with distribution and formation activities.
- 671,648 MTBO Bibles in 8 different languages were distributed in 2012.
- At least 400,000 will be distributed in 2012.
- Number of prayer partners and supporters, here and abroad is steadily increasing.
- The next stage of the campaign, the Handwritten Unity Bible Project, designed to foster greater interest in God's Word and raise funds for MTBO Bibles was launched in September 2010.
- Stories that show people's hunger for the Word and how the Bible is changing lives — participants carried their babies on their backs and walked as far as four kilometers to attend Bible seminar & another four kilometers back home (Solano, Nueva Viscaya), broken families were restored (Ozamis City), husbands habitually hanging around with drinking buddies, now come home sober (Dipolog City), readiness of both rich and poor to bless others with medicine, food, and material things as the Word of God is shared to people in more places (Pagadian City).

The Bible is the Word of God. It will guide people towards a blessed and peaceful life. Give now and help change lives and communities. Please fill up the Response Form and return it to us today.

May God bless you for your prayers and for helping proclaim the Word that shall not pass away.

Proclaim the Word, Profess the Faith
 Christian life is like driving a car. You start on low gears; but if you want to speed up, you have to shift to higher gears. Our theme for this year is a call to shift from the lower gears of discipleship to the higher gears of apostleship. Discipleship is about following Christ; apostleship is about being sent... to represent Christ (Mt 28:19). Christ is risen; he is alive in us, his disciples. When we gather in his name (Mt 18:20), when we are bonded together in the Spirit, we become his body, the Church. That means we become the very sacrament—sign and instrument—of his presence in the world, by the grace of baptism. We must allow Christ to live on and carry on with his mission in and through us—the members of his body. We must allow Christ to continue to bring the fire of faith on earth, to set the whole world ablaze with it (Lk 12:49). We cannot leave this only to our ordained ministers. We can leave the work of evangelization only to them; that would be negating on our common vocation and mission! Their pastoral leadership proves to be effective only when they succeed in evoking the gifts of the Holy Spirit has generously poured out on us by the grace of baptism and putting these gifts to good use—to renew the face of the earth.

Proclaim the Word, Profess the Faith! This is our common exhortation for this year which Pope Benedict XVI has called a "Year of Faith" (October 2012-October 2013), made even more opportune by the launching of a global Synod aimed at starting off a "New Evangelization" in the world that is growing cold with the winter of materialism and secularism. He reminds us all of the time when Paul and Barnabas was excitedly returned to Antioch and reported to the community how the Lord in his graciousness has "opened the door of faith" to the Gentiles (Acts 14:27).

Paul's exhortation to Timothy: "Proclaim the Word; be exhort, with complete patience and teaching" (2 Tim 2:4) is his challenge to us as well. Let us not shut the doors that have been flung open by the Lord. He has entrusted to us His Word as the key—for binding and for loosing, on earth as in heaven (Mt 16:19).

Even as we proclaim the Sacred Scriptures as Word of God, let us not forget that this Word became flesh in Jesus Christ (Jn 1:14). We are not to proclaim the Word as lifeless lines from the pages of a book. Rather we must allow it to transform us—as individuals, as families, as communities of faith, and as a nation. This cannot happen if our encounter with the Word does not facilitate our encounter with the Living Word—"whom we have heard, whom we have seen with our own eyes, whom we have touched and carefully watched; the Word who is life, this we share with you!" (1 Jn 1:1-2)

Let me end by borrowing from the lyrics of the beautiful song "Power to Unite" of the National Catholic Family Bible Encounter. "Read the Bible; the Word of God will give you strength to face the challenge of living. Read the Bible, open it, feel it, understand it. It is the source of our hope when life is too heavy to bear, when all seems lost and unclear; read the Bible and its message will wipe away your tears."
